The Hole Truth

People who refuse to get involved in the problems of their community are like two shipwrecked men in a lifeboat. From their end of the boat, the pair watched as a hole at the other end was being frantically to keep the boat afloat. One said to the other, "Thank heaven, the hole is only in our end of the boat."

Puritan Pulpit

E HARVEST IS PAST, THE SUMMER IS ENDED, AND WE ARE NOT SAVED . . . Jeremiah 8:20.

SAVED!! Dear reader, is this your dreadful condition? of the judgment to come, invited to escape for your yet at this moment not saved! You know the way of , you read it in the Bible, you hear it from the pulpit, it ned to you by friends, and yet you neglect it, and there not save. You will be without excuse when the Lord ge the quick and dead. The Holy Spirit has blessed the hich has been preached in your hearing, and yet you are Christ. All these hopeful seasons have come and our summer and your harvest have past—and yet you saved. Years have followed one another into eternity, r last year will soon be here: youth has gone, manhood , and yet you are not saved.

me ask you—will you ever be saved? Is there any d of it? Already the many years have left you unsaved; er occasions alter your condition? Means have failed u—the best of means, used over and over the Word of been preached to you with love and compassion—what s be done for you? Sorrow and plenty have also failed to you; tears and prayers and sermons have been wasted hard heart. Are not the probabilities dead against your ng saved? Is it not more than likely that you will stay as t till death forever bars the door of hope? Do you draw m this supposition? Yet it is a most reasonable one: he not washed in so many waters will in all probability go to his end. The convenient time, never has come, why t ever come? It is logical to fear that it never will arrive, like Felix, you will find no convenient season till you ell. Oh, think of what that hell is, and of the dread ility that you will soon be cast into it!

se you should die unsaved, your doom no words can ure. Write out your destiny in tears and blood, talk of it oans and gnashing of teeth: you will be punished with ing destruction from the glory of the Lord, and from y of His power. Be wise! be wise in time, and before it is think of these things I have said and if deep repentance o you, it will be well: and if it should lead you to a faith in Jesus Christ, it will be best of all.
